Jeremy Sons

is searching every woman,
inside and out

The phone rang in the PLAYGIRL offices. One of the editors put down her latte and took the call. On the other end of the line was a reader named Honey. "I have a Discovery to tell you about," she began. "His name is Jeremy Sons. He's new in our small town. But you'd better hurry, I have a feeling he won't be around long." She e-mailed us a snapshot she had taken of him, completely nude and hard, and explained how this sexy stranger was having his way with all the horny women in town.

This guy's story is that he is searching for a long lost lover. But the thing is, he has no idea what she looks like! All he knows is how her body feels, and how she makes love. Apparently, one night, a woman crept into his bed, disguised, made love to him, and disappeared," Honey sighed.

"So I take it you're not the mystery lover he's searching for?"

"Unfortunately, it's not me, but he sure had a good time finding that out!" she laughed. "I think this stud is determined to sleep with every woman in the state until he finds her," she said.

This was an interesting story! We hopped in the car with a photographer and headed west for Ohio.

Upon our arrival, we had no trouble finding the handsome Jeremy—all the women in the town knew where he was at all times.

"We hear you're on a little bit of a sex search," one editor said as she took Jeremy by the arm.

"You could say that," he smiled, eyeing her like passionate prey.

Have you spotted someone you'd like to see more of? Just send us a snapshot and we'll do the rest. Each month, one lucky reader—along with her discovery—will be featured in PLAYGIRL's pages. This month's lucky Playgirl is...

HONEY

I won't rest until I feel those incredible breasts again, that hot mouth, those long legs wrapped around my waist. It might have been a dream, but I'm not sure. It felt so hot and real."

"Well, since we came all this way, why don't you show us what you've got in store for her?" the editor prompted. Jeremy dropped his pants and pulled down the band of his underwear, exposing a full cock that made us all do a double take. He slowly turned around so we could view each perfect muscle, and flashed an incredible smile that would make any woman wet. Was he a player, or just a sincere guy on a search for true love? If he came to your town, would you be willing to find out?
